STATE OF MAINE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Karen L. Brown

Governor James B. Longley
signed into law recently a bill which I co-sponsored that would ban the sale of aerosol cans with fluorocarbon propellants after Jan.
1, 1979. I co-sponsored this legislation because of my concern over potential damage to the atmospheric ozone layer.

Many persons from District 63
contacted me with letters clearly indicating that they were opposed to moose hunting. After considering the arguments contained in Governor Longley's veto message
I voted to sustain his objections to the bill that would have allowed the moose hunting for the first time in forty two years.

The House defeated a bill passed earlier by the Senate which would deny a person unemployment benefits if he refused a suitable job that paid at least 20% more than the unemployment benefits. Without the bill a jobless worker can collect up to 39 weeks of benefits unless he or she is able to accept a job at the same salary as his former employment. Proponents argued that Maine People were tired of picking up the tab for pre-paid vacations, that unemployment benefits are an attractive alternative to working and that opponents should provide constructive alternatives. Opponents charged that skilled workers should not be compelled to compete with unskilled workers, and that the bill would prevent skilled workers from waiting for an opening in their field. I voted for this bill because I felt it would help to reduce the cost of unemployment benefits and would encourage more people to seek gainful employment.

The Memorial Day services were held under beautiful skies. There was a small attendance for the parade and cemetery decorating
and the other morning observances
but I think those present were enriched by the experience. I made up a tape from information sent to me by mail and from a taped conversation with Daisie Warren but we did not synchronize our equipment and it came over mostly unintelligible. While this was played, it was mostly quiet as the group looked out over the cemetery and vista beyond the graves, and deepened each his own feelings for the past and the future. If the words of the tape were unclear, the meaning and feeling hit a deeper response.

Later grills were set up and hot dogs and hamburgers prepared for an increasing large group of people. Huge bowls of salad, and other go-with-it filled one large table. The punch bowl was the hub in a wheel of young people.

The secret was that the suspect
ed liar was given no further information. The jurists coated the animal's tail with black pitch. It was their theory that if the accused was innocent, he would rather grab the tail, returning with
blackened hands. If he was guilty,
however, he would hesitate to up-
set the donkey for fear of what might happen. His hands, of course, would remain clean. So
the wicked man gave himself away.

Criminologists indicate that there is no 100% effective lie detector machine available. People
may fool others, but no one can fool God. The Lord knows the innermost secrets of our hearts.

White lies and black lies are both sins to Him. With Christ in our hearts and minds we will have "truth
in our inward parts." "You shall
know the TRUTH and the TRUTH
SHALL SET YOU FREE."

THE SECRET DONKEY
By Dr. J. Philip Jackson
Community Church
Rumford Center

Long before modern lie detec-
tors were invented, men were endeavoring to discover ways by
which it could be determined
if an individual was telling a lie.

The ancient Egyptians used a
method called "the secret donkey." The suspect was locked in a dark barn and ordered to grip
the donkey's tail firmly. If the donkey brayed, the man was pronounced guilty. If it remained silent, he was considered innocent.

The secret was that the suspect
ed liar was given no further information. The jurists coated the animal's tail with black pitch. It
was their theory that if the accused was innocent, he would rather grab the tail, returning with
blackened hands. If he was guilty,
however, he would hesitate to up-
set the donkey for fear of what
might happen. His hands, of course, would remain clean. So
the wicked man gave himself away.

Criminologists indicate that
there is no 100% effective lie detector machine available. People
may fool others, but no one can
fool God. The Lord knows the innermost secrets of our hearts.

White lies and black lies are both
sins to Him. With Christ in our hearts and minds we will have "truth
in our inward parts." "You shall
know the TRUTH and the TRUTH
SHALL SET YOU FREE."

THE SECRET DONKEY
By Dr. J. Philip Jackson
Community Church
Rumford Center

Long before modern lie detec-
tors were invented, men were endeavoring to discover ways by
which it could be determined
if an individual was telling a lie.

The ancient Egyptians used a
method called "the secret don-
key." The suspect was locked in a
dark barn and ordered to grip
the donkey's tail firmly. If the
donkey brayed, the man was pronounced guilty. If it remained silent, he was considered innocent.

Greenwood City

— Mrs. Collis Morgan, Corres. —

The morning in all its splendor lifted the curtains of night and said, "Hello, June, you come with your own tranquility and you are as sure as the sunrise."

How gently the flowers uncloset like a rare jewel and sparkle as they are kissed by the dew. They lift their heads and flaunt their petals for they know it is June.

The birds piped choruses beneath skies so blue so I decided to take my boat up the Sanborn River. The sun shone without pressure but it was warm, June, a nice time of year; there's greenness and sweetness everywhere.

Just as I pushed from shore the two beautiful Mallard ducks belonging to a neighbor, quacked themselves down pond, swimming. On a small island on which the ducks have sunned, something moved and I watched as I rowed toward it. There taking over the island was a huge snapping turtle.

Perhaps he was waiting for the baby ducks we saw one morning. As I neared into the water he slid making hardly a ripple. How ugly he looked. These turtles have little concern about other creatures of the pond. Staying cleverly concealed they await whatever hapless creature that might come along. Their only enemy is man. They come on land seldom. By no stretch of the imagination is one an attractive creature.

The painted turtle is, for it has pleasant characteristics — glossy shell, smooth, whorled patterns, red or yellow stripes, and blotches on its head, legs and neck.

Snapper's eyes could only be described as awesome, no softness, just cold and calculating; set high and close to the nostrils, a tremendous ugly creature. I rowed on to the mouth of the river.

Of course the blackbirds were there and I was fascinated by one of them. He held a moth in his beak, shook it, walked out upon a rock, dipped it in the water letting it float then retrieved it and flew away.

The water was a mirror of the ceiling of a few clouds, puffy and soft, through which the sun shone as if in a dream.

All the hills were brushed in tender green. One sandpiper walked high-stilted along the edge of a sandy place full of jerky dignity and a kingfisher flew low over the water and curious. The oriole filled the air with sounds like the clinking of coins.

The May flies were everywhere. He is one of the most beautiful of all insects. When he alights standing high on fragile legs there is an upward curve of the abdomen and the tail sweep is like delicate brush strokes of a painter. There are two pairs of wings; the first which is larger. Both sets are finely net-veined with color.

As I floated I thought of the rivers and how they began. They have quiet beginnings; raindrops on leaves, tiny rivulets and snowflakes whispering as they come to rest upon boughs. They are all national treasures and "RIVER" is often thrust into our minds. Geologists think of them as "young", middle-aged", or mature" according to their relationship to the landscape, rather than in years. "My" river holds its place among the many and I never tire of its scenes.

I spent a full four hours on the waters before going ashore and fastening my boat.

As highways extend and opportunities to be alone decrease it's a precious thing to have some rivers of solitude left.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonas Holt were in Windsor on Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holt.

Ruth Leino and daughter, Anna Jean, of Harrison, called on us on Wednesday evening.

At the Hayes Homestead week end visitors were Duane Hayes and twin daughters, West Paris, Del and Betty Hayes, Auburn, on Saturday. On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Waterhouse, Westbrook, and Verna Libby, Gorham. They and Rolly, Doris, and Elmer Hayes went to Katie's Kitchen for dinner at Snow's Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Morgan called on Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Notgate on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curtis, East Sumner, called on us on Thursday. Ruth Hastings, South Paris, called on Friday.

U. S. FOREST SERVICE ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR YCC

The U. S. Forest Service has announced that the Evans Notch Ranger District, White Mountain National Forest, Bethel, will be conducting an expanded Youth Conservation Corps (YCC) program this summer.

The YCC is a co-educational work/education program sponsored each summer by the Department of Agriculture and the Interior to provide youths, ages 15 to 18 with meaningful summer employment on State and Federal lands. Various work projects, such as trail construction and maintenance, wildlife habitat improvement, boundary renewal on Forest Service land and stream clearing are but a few of the varied and interesting projects the youths will encounter. Education with regard to the environment is an important part of the program and every effort is made to integrate the learning experience with the work projects.

Last year the Evans Notch Ranger District conducted a 10 person, non-residential camp (youths returned home every night). This year in addition to the 10 non-residential campers, there will be 40 youths in an eight week residential camp. Boys and girls from all over the State of Maine will be coming to Bethel, to live, work, and learn in an outdoor setting.

The Forest Service is currently accepting bids to contract food and lodging for fifty people from June 26, 1977 to Aug. 20, 1977. Sell Home Yourself?
I'm sure you've heard it said: "Why should I sell my home through a REALTOR? I can sell it myself and save a lot of money." Right? Wrong!

This kind of thinking usually turns out to be financially unwise. The prospects will usually start by mentally deducting the commission and then start negotiating from there. On the average, a homeowner saves NO money when he sells his own home. In fact, the opposite is true. Studies over a ten year period show that the net proceeds from owner-sold property are LESS than the REALTOR-sold piece of real estate, even after the payment of commission.

As a private seller you're at a great disadvantage in the intricate areas of financing, negotiating and protecting yourself from all sorts of do-it-yourself pitfalls. You've a lot invested in your home. It makes sense to list it with a REALTOR. He'll sell it for you — without hitches — for the best price and in the shortest amount of time.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at EARLY REAL ESTATE, 60 Main St., Bethel, Phone: 824-2122, 824-2579. We're here to help!

Northwest Bethel —

Clarice Gibson, Corres. —
June the month of June brides and graduation! Also the longest day of the year! The trees are in full leaf and after the rains everything looks so green and clean.

The iris are beginning to bloom and should be at their peak in about a week. Always taking a picture of the boys in their graduation gowns with iris for a background. Wilfred had his by the tulip bed as he left early, May 25, last year, to go in the Marines. The 8th will be his birthday. How fast they grow up and are gone.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gibbs entertained her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Coulter and her sister, Karen, from Suffield, Conn., the week end of the 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gibbs, Danny Gibbs, Ricky Young, and Wendell, who is from Peabody, Mass., went to Wilson's Mills Memorial week end camping at Adiscoos Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. "Coach" Daniel Hannon and two daughters went to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Belanger, Portsmouth, N. H. Mrs. Hannon's aunt, Edna Henson, from Washington, D. C., also visited her sister, Mrs. Lucien Belanger.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benson took a ride Memorial week end up through Upton and over into Rangeley. On the way back they came through Farmington.

Over Memorial week end vanda's put something into Bradley Benson's skidder and tractor on his woods job near Casco. Whatever it was it "froze" the motors in the garage getting fixed. Why do people do these things?

Shantell and Anita Kimball, granddaughters of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benson, were in a recital of Sue Farrar's "Hensel and Gretel"

Friday and Saturday at Oxford Hills High. Sylvia went down on Friday.

We also had my nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Tucker III and Ben IV, for supper Memorial evening.

Mrs. Emilie Cherry was in Bethel the 2nd, but went back to Portland and will be coming back to her home later.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Smith and son, Matthew, were supper guests of his parents, the 4th.

A 2nd year went through the gardens Saturday night. There were tracks through our gardens and young Angelvines.

Wednesday, the 1st, Timmy Angewine went to Debbie Barker's 5th birthday party at her grandmother's, Marjorie Barker's. Her mother, Judy Barker, and brother, Lanny, and Mrs. Bea Burris, were also present. She received presents and cake and ice cream were served.

Friday night Mr. and Mrs. Victor Coolidge entertained at a birthday party for their daughter Sara's first birthday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Angewine and children; also grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Angewine.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Merrill, West Bethel, were evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Saunders.

My parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Allen came for a Sunday afternoon visit.

Want to get this downtown so I can at least get some weeding done before the rains come. The weather has not been very good this spring for gardens.

South Woodstock

Olive Davis, Corres.

Mr. and Mrs. Guyson Davis and Mrs. Davis' mother, Mrs. Mary Brown were in Carthage Monday where they visited the grave of Mr. Brown. They went from there to Dixfield, Canton Point, and Livemore where they called on Mrs. Emily Pike returning home from there. The first picnic dinner was enjoyed on the trip.

Sunday was to be a beautiful day, pictured by our forecasters but something went wrong. It's been a rainy day. It poured by spells and we hope it has alleviated the fire hazard anyway. The forecast for June hasn't been very encouraging.

I wonder if anyone also has had the leaves taken off their tomato plants this year, leaving about an inch and a half of stalk. It can't be cutworms as they cut to the ground. I never knew anything that would eat the leaves as they have too strong an odor. Tomatoes have always grown well for me so I can't understand why, this year, that they have done so poorly.

We are sorry to hear of the passing of Walter Appleby. He lived many years in South Woodstock before moving to West Paris. Much sympathy is extended to the family in this hour of sadness.

Olive Davis took dinner on Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Young at Bryant Pond. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooper were there too for dinner so we had a nice visit all around.

Edith Hathaway spent the afternoon with Olive, Friday.

Mrs. Leslie Thurlow had a week's vacation from her job as pastry cook at Ledgeview Memorial Home. She spent three days by serving on the traverse jury at South Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bryant called on Olive Davis Sunday afternoon and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Verjill, also.

I called on Iva Beck, Jessie Andrews and Elizabeth Russ Saturday afternoon at the Ledgeview Memorial Home and found them as usual. Iva was asleep so I didn't talk with her. She looked a lot better than when I was in before.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell attended a birthday party at Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Billings when their daughter, Angela became a year old.

Mrs. Christine Campbell took care of two of her grandchildren Niki Burnham and Donna Poland Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Johnson and daughter, Donna, were at their cottage over the week end. They called on Mr. and Mrs. Guyson Davis, Sunday.

Other callers on the Davises and Mrs. Mary Brown were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pike of Liver-

Mrs. Floribel Haines and Fred Haines attended the canoe races on the Ellis River. They attended a housewarming for Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bartlett Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Almon Coolidge, Mrs. Earl Coolidge and Denise and Peter Mason, visited Mr. and Mrs. Victor Coolidge in Northwest Bethel Sunday to celebrate little Sarah Coolidge's first birthday.

Mrs. Maud Danforth and Mrs. Leona Curtis with Mrs. Leona Lurvey, Hanover, attended the State Convention of the World War I Barracks and Auxiliary at Rangleley Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Leona Curtis attended the Alumni Banquet of her class at West Paris Saturday. It was the 54th anniversary of her graduation.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Noyes and son, Ceylon of Wilton, visited Mrs. Leona Curtis Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bethel and children of Brooklyn, N. Y., are at their summer home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Beckwick of Pacific Palisades, Calif., visited Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tyler Saturday.

Mrs. Nancy Antonnelli and daughter, Bobbi, of Plattsburg, N. Y., were week end visitors of Mrs. Andre Bernier and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kimball.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kimball attended the housewarming of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bartlett Saturday.

Miss Teresa Coolidge was an overnight guest of Miss Vellora Kimball Saturday.

Mrs. Richard Stearns of Rumford Corner, and Mrs. John Foster and children, Denise and David, of Andover, visited Mr. and Mrs. David Foster Sunday.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all my family, neighbors, and friends for all the cards, flowers and calls, as well as the birthday cards I received while in the hospital, nursing home, and since my return home. It is wonderful to know one, in so many ways, it helps in so many ways to pass the time and lift your spirits. All was greatly appreciated. Many thanks for all your prayers and may God Bless you all.

REIER - JOHNSTON

The Andover Congregational Church was the scene of a June 4 wedding ceremony uniting Charles F. Reier II and Miss Joye Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnston of Andover. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Reier of New Knoxville, Ohio. The service was performed by Rev. David Wuori with Mrs. Linda Burnham as organist.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. John Merrill of Andover, and as bridesmaids, Mrs. Dennis Kerschner, Merrimack, N. H., another sister of the bride, and Mrs. Jennifer Reier, sister of the groom. Niece and nephews of the bride, Trudi Kerschner, Peter Kerschner and Jonathan Merrill, served as flower girl and ring bearers, respectively.

The bride's gown was fashioned of sheer muslin with high round collar and lace-edged yoke, long fitted sleeves with lace insert and wide ruffled hemline. She wore a two-tier floor length veil, caught to a band of white and red roses and carried a colonial bouquet of red and white roses, miniature poms and baby's breath. Her attendants all wore white with red and blue print gowns with square necklines, smocked bodices and duffed yokes. Each carried a single long stemmed red rose and wore wide brimmed hats. The flower girl was dressed in white, trimmed with print identical to the attendants' gowns, and carried a basket of red roses and white carnations.

The groom chose as his best man, Allen Spring of New Knoxville, Ohio, and as ushers, Brad Best, Augusta, and his brother, Robert Reier, of New Knoxville, Ohio.

At the reception held at the Andover Town Hall, the guest book was circulated by Mrs. Donna French and the cake was served by Mrs. Ruth Sidelinger.

The bride is a graduate of Telstar Regional High School and served two years in Germany as a member of the U. S. Army. Mr. Reier is with the U. S. Army, stationed in Hawaii, where the bridal couple will reside.

BROAD STREET FEATURED AT SOCIETY MEETING

The Bethel Zouaves here. And one of the purposes of the Bethel Village Corporation's formation in 1889 was to improve the common. Various celebrations and commemorations have been held here including the Centennial of the last Indian Raid in 1881.

No building survives from the earliest days of the street's history. Time and fires have taken their toll. But the area has been long a center of commercial activity and impressive residences. Among other credits the street has been the home of two United States Congressmen (Moses Mason and David Hammons) and a Justice of the Maine Supreme Judicial Court (Enoch Foster). In addition it has always attracted a large number of famous visitors including Jane Addams of Hull House.

Undoubtedly, the "golden era" can be described as that period the Gehring Clinic attracted some of the most wealthy and brilliant people in the northeast to the street, particularly from New York society and Harvard University circles. But for lovers of Bethel history, the days of the Doctors' Mason and True possess equal fascination.

Broad Street represents a unique historical resource within the town of Bethel and every effort should be made to preserve its essential character while allowing for thoughtful change.

An exhibit featuring old photographs and artifacts entitled "Bethel's Broad Street" also opened to the public at this meeting. Prepared by the Education and Research Committee, it will continue through the 1977 museum season.

CUB SCOUT RALLY

The first summertime activity for the Cub Scouts of Bethel Pack 566 will be held Saturday, June 11 in Farmington. It is a family day, so Mom, Dad, Brother, Sister, Aunt and Uncle, are all invited to pack a picnic lunch and join in the fun. For the Cubs there will be a parade followed by lots of races, relays, ending with tug-of-wars and a chariot race. Awards will be given to the winners and each Cub will receive an activity patch to wear on their uniform. Drinks, ice cream, chips, etc. will be available at Hippach Field, where all events will take place. Last year the rally was held on the Gould Athletic Field and Bethel 600 walked off with 18 ribbons. Cubs don't forget to wear your uniform and plan to join in the old A & P Parking Lot at 9 a. m. on Saturday morning, June 11.

All Cubs who attend all three summertime activities will receive a gold pin to wear on their uniform. Cubs don't forget to wear your uniform and plan to join in the old A & P Parking Lot at 9 a. m. on Saturday morning, June 11.

So come on out, it's fun for the whole family at the 1977 Cub Rally.
